COMPANY PROFILE

At Esigo, we create design objects that encourage communication between man and wine, not only to accommodate the bottles, but to communicate to all enthusiasts the messages and emotions that wine conveys.

Esigo is now the leading Italian company of modern design wine racks, in addition to various accessories for storing and serving wine. From the cellar to the table, at home or at public facilities such as wine shops, wineries tasting rooms and retail shops, wine bars, restaurants, hotels, Esigo brings our favourite bottles to life.

Esigo designer wine racks, guarantee the best possible conditions for storing bottled wine and optimising space thanks to their modular features.

Esigo is a perfect blend of ever changing modern art and reliable storage that is consistently expanding, a wide range of bespoke and highly customisable objects - by size and configuration - to meet the needs of those who consider wine to be a personal pleasure, along with those who have made wine their profession and business.

THE DIFFERENCE

Architects, interior designers, professionals, but also wine lovers, who want to realize their wine cellar, can contact our experts for a single phase of the project or a complete consulting.

Esigo provides a project manager who organizes all aspects of the project, becoming the reference for any questions, requests or consultations.

MADE IN ITALY

All the Esigo wine racks are Made in Italy. Because quality is an element that Esigo is not willing to compromise on.

The detailed attention we pay to our designs is what distinguishes our wine racks and all of our furnishings for wine cellars, wineries tasting rooms and retail shops, wine shops, wine bars. Esigo is created from extensive research and careful selection of the finest raw materials and finishes available today, and constructed using state-of-the-art technology. Italy is the country in which we can manufacture our products with the required attention to detail which make Esigo wine racks a cut above the rest.

At the forefront of modern design, Italy is the place that provides a mix of exceptionally high levels of skill and expertise alongside state of the art production technology.
